Date of decision: 16/12/96

ORAL JUDGEMENT

Petitioners are the owners of the land bearing survey No. 431 i.e. final plot no. 810 and 812 situated at Vadaj. Under Town Planning Scheme No.28, said lands have been reserved for "public housing" under sec.12(2) (K) of the Gujarat Town Planning and Urban Development Act, 1976 [hereinafter referred to as "the Act"]. A Notification of reservation under the Act was issued on 16th September, 1983. It appears that the said lands were not acquired or used for the purpose for which it were reserved for 10 years. The petitioners, therefore, on 6th July, 1995, served a notice under sec.20(2) to appropriate authority requiring it to acquire the lands. In spite of the said notice, the appropriate authority failed to take any step to acquire the said lands either by agreement or under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894. The petitioners have, therefore, preferred this petition for declaration that the reservation of the said lands under the Town Planning Scheme published on 16th September, 1983 has lapsed.

2. The matter at issue in this petition is no more res - integra. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the matter of Ahmedabad Urban Development Authority v. Manilal Gordhandas and others [JT 1996 (8) SC 646], has decided the point at issue against the land owners. The Court has held that the draft development plan which was sanctioned and notified on 2.11.1987 shall be deemed to be the final development plan within the meaning of section 20 of the Gujarat Town Planning Act. As such, period of ten years has to be calculated and counted with reference to 3rd December, 1987, the date when such final development plan was to come into force.

In view of the above decision, the final development plan having come into force on 3rd December, 1987, the petitioner could not have invoked the provisions of section 20(2) of the Act before the expiry of ten years from 3.12.1987. Thus, the notice given on 6th July, 1995 was premature and no declaration can be given as is prayed for by the petitioners.

In the event, this petition fails. Petition is dismissed. Rule is discharged. Ad-interim relief granted earlier stands vacated. There shall be no order as to costs.
